And others

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V.V.S.RAO

WRIT PETITION No.12718 of 2007

ORDER:

The petitioner alleges that her mother was assigned land admeasuring Acs.2.00 in survey No.451/1 in Nuzendla Village and Mandal in Guntur District. After death of her mother, the petitioner who is allegedly the only daughter succeeded to the property and cultivating the land along with her father and her husband. It is further alleged that as the petitioner and her family members are sympathizers of Telugu Desam Party (TDP), the local congress leaders prevailed over the respondents to take the subject land from the petitioner for assignment to others. Apprehending that the respondents might dispossess her, the petitioner filed the instant writ petition.

After hearing the learned counsel for petitioner and learned Assistant Government Pleader for Revenue (Andhra-General), this Court is convinced that the writ petition is filed on mere apprehension without any basis. Indeed, in paragraph 5 of the affidavit accompanying the writ petition, the petitioner alleges that she is apprehending that the respondents are conniving and conspiring the congress party leaders and are trying to dispossess her without due process of law.

The writ petition, therefore, cannot be entertained. However, this Court observes that if the petitioner's mother was assigned, as alleged, the subject land and if the petitioner is in possession as on today, the respondents cannot dispossess her without following due process of law.

The writ petition, subject to above observation, is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
